

Calling all Artists, Students, Educators & Community Groups in the Tucson Area!

WHAT? WHEN? WHERE?

Tucson Clean & Beautiful invites you to participate in the R.U.M.B.A. (Re-Used Materials Becoming Art) showcase and competition to be held on Saturday, April 21, 2007 at the Tucson Children's Earth Day Festival in downtown Tucson at Armory Park (in front of the Tucson Children's Museum).

PROJECT REQUIREMENTS: R.U.M.B.A. creations must be three-dimensional and no larger than 2'X3' to fit on tables, or larger pieces that can be freestanding. Any previously used materials can be used to make recycled art for R.U.M.B.A. Scraps of plastic, paper, wood, metal, old toys and parts of broken things are the foundation for this type of art. Individuals of all ages and artistic abilities, school classrooms/clubs and organizations of all affiliations are invited to enter recycled art for display. Entries will be selected to receive special prizes and certificates that will be awarded following the event. All entries will receive of certificate of participation.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE: Please return the registration form below by April 5, 2007. Registration forms are accepted by mail, fax, or email. R.U.M.B.A. entries may be delivered at the beginning of the Tucson Children's Earth Day Festival on Saturday, April 21st, 2007, between 8 and 9 a.m. to the Armory Park Senior Center located at 220 S. 5th Avenue.

Feel free to make copies of this information and entry form for other interested R.U.M.B.A. artists! More information on the Tucson Children's Earth Day Festival 2007 is available online at <http://www.tucsonearthday.com>
